Al-Maydan: A Faculty-Student Book Club on Islam and Muslims presents

A Cultural History of Women of Color in American Islam

LUNCHTIME TALK
(food and drink provided)
12:20–1:15 p.m.
Kirby Hall of Civil Rights 104

DISCUSSION
WITH THE AUTHOR
4:10–5:30 p.m.
Grossman Library

Based on her exciting new book, Dr. Sylvia Chan-Malik will give a lunchtime lecture on the untold twentieth and twenty-first century history of U.S. Muslim women of color. She will then lead a discussion of her book with faculty and students in the Grossman House as part of the ongoing series of events sponsored by the Al-Maydan bookclub.

Al-Maydan, or “Open Space,” is an interdisciplinary book club that meets roughly once a month to discuss a book related to Islam and Muslims, spanning the fields of religious studies, anthropology, history, and English. The book club is open to all members of the Lafayette community—students, faculty, and administration. Please contact Professors Hafsa Kanjwal or Youshaa Patel if you would like to participate.

Al-Maydan is supported by Tapestries, Office of the Provost, and the Asian Studies program.

BEING Muslim

A Cultural History of Women of Color in American Islam

Tuesday, April 9, 2019