LAFAYETTE ART GALLERIES

Spring 2019
Pedro Barbeito traces a painting history in which the medium continually redefines itself based on the technological and cultural forms of its time. By merging themes such as 16th-century landscape painting with video game landscapes, and news media images with Golden Age comic books, he explores how seemingly unrelated worlds can coalesce, expanding the semiotics of space while reflecting the complexity of contemporary culture.